

About CUCollector.com

CUCollector.com was created in 2010 as a website providing, news, training, press releases and editorials dedicated to the collections and repossession industries. Since its inception, it has become the largest and most well-known credit union collections resources in the nation. CUCollector.com keeps its readers informed with current news relevant to collectors such as remarketing, regulatory changes, training events as well as press releases from industry vendors and associations. We broadcast our articles through our newsletters, Facebook, Twitter and LinkedIn to tens of thousands of collections and repossession professionals monthly.

While there are many credit union focused sources for news, there is no better credit union collections related website to reach a broader audience of collections professionals, service providers, decision makers and leaders than CUCollector.com. There is also no better platform for increasing exposure and access to your company and services.

While not listed in the following standard rates sheets, pop up ads and other enhanced creative contributions are welcome with a fee we can discuss.

Press releases are free and guest editorials encouraged. Of course, all published content is published at the editor's discretion based upon applicability and value to the audience.

The below rates are basic month to month advertising rates and negotiable based upon terms and optional multiple ad packages.

CFPB Sets Its Sights on Credit Acceptance Corp

CFPB'S NEXT TARGET Credit Acceptance Corp cfpb

"For almost 4 out of 10 loans, Credit Acceptance predicted that it would not be able to collect the full amount financed by the loan. Credit Acceptance profits even when borrowers are unable to pay their loans in full by using aggressive debt collection methods."

The Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB) appears to be starting 2023 right where it left off in 2022. On December 20th, they hit Wells Fargo Bank with civil and civil penalties of $3.99, now it's Credit Acceptance Corporation's (CAC) turn.
